

March 2023 providing loving care, education and opportunity to Ugandan children

Hello from Alakara Home!!

I have been in Moroto for my longest stint ever – I'm now in my 15th month!! It has been great spending this consistent time with the girls and dealing with the ups and downs of normal family life. All the girls are back to school and doing well and one is in catering school. She makes very nice cakes and doughnuts when she comes home!!!!

What's been happening!?!? Our School is coming up!!

Rising up from the stoney ground are 4 classroom blocks (4 classrooms in each), 2 dormitory blocks and a very impressive "Great Wall of Musas" around our 50 acres!!! Whilst there have been many frustrations building here it has also been great to see a vision being built before our eyes!! We do have some needs though –

- a) a construction project manager/engineer to volunteer for 1/2/3 months to give me a bit of an expert hand. "An experience of a lifetime"!!! 😊
- b) a few more dollars!!! NZ $1.5Million to be exact. If you know a millionaire please pass this newsletter on to them!!! Or if you'd like to build a tech block, admin block, hall – only NZ$200,000 each!! Remember you will get 1/3rd of your investment back in your donation receipt!! Plus you'll get a great sense of fulfillment!! 😊

We had an adventure!!!

We went by bus to Jinja (8 hrs!) to see the Source of the Nile!!! Most of the girls have never been out of Moroto – first time for seeing a city, a lake/river; swim; be on a boat, go to an amusement park!!! Even boil a jug!!! As one said "Mama, it was unforgettable"!!

We gave gifts to grandmothers

We had a visitor!!

Gerard came to help me with the school build. He was fantastic and went away with 36 more daughters!!!! They liked his cooking and dance moves!!!!

THANK YOU FOR ALL YOUR SUPPORT OF THE GIRLS. THEY LOVE YOU ALL!!!
